

U Series of Poker (USOP) Player Protection, Liability & Media Policy

1. Purpose

The U Series of Poker ("USOP") is committed to providing a safe and professional tournament environment. This policy sets out the responsibilities, protections, and disclaimers applicable to all participants, spectators, and associated individuals present at USOP venues.

2. Player Acknowledgement

By registering for and/or attending any USOP event, players expressly agree to the terms of this policy, including but not limited to the following:

- USOP is not responsible for any personal injury, illness, accident, theft, property loss, or damages that may occur at the venue, including surrounding areas, unless directly caused by proven gross negligence of USOP.
- Players attend and participate in events at their own risk.
- Each participant is responsible for their own personal health, safety, and belongings.

3. Emergencies & Force Majeure

- In the event of medical emergencies, accidents, or unforeseen natural events (such as fire, earthquake, flood, or other force majeure circumstances), USOP representatives may use the personal information provided during registration to contact family members, spouses, or designated partners for notification and assistance purposes.
- USOP reserves the right to suspend, modify, or cancel any event in response to emergencies or government or venue directives, without liability for refunds or damages beyond what is expressly stated in the event's registration terms.

4. Personal Conduct

- Players must follow all venue safety guidelines, tournament rules, and staff instructions.

- Any disorderly, aggressive, or unsafe behavior will result in immediate removal from the venue without refund.

5. Insurance & Personal Responsibility

- USOP strongly recommends that all players obtain appropriate travel, health, and accident insurance before attending events.
- Players are solely responsible for covering their own medical costs, transport, or other personal expenses in the event of illness or injury.

6. Media Rights & Consent

- By attending the event, all participants, spectators, and guests automatically grant USOP and its media team the right to capture photographs, video, and audio recordings during the event.
- Such materials may be used, reproduced, published, or distributed by USOP for marketing, promotional, editorial, and commercial purposes, across any media platform (including but not limited to websites, social media, press releases, livestreams, and broadcasts).
- No additional release form is required for this usage, and no compensation will be provided for appearances in such media.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law:

- USOP, its affiliates, sponsors, and representatives shall not be held liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from participation or presence at a USOP event.
- USOP's total liability (if any) is strictly limited to the value of the participant's paid tournament entry fee.

8. Data Usage Consent

- By registering, players consent to USOP using their personal information for emergency contact purposes as described in Section 3.
- USOP will maintain strict confidentiality of personal information in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

9. Acceptance of Policy

By entering a USOP event, players acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to this Player Protection, Liability & Media Policy. This agreement is binding upon the player, their family, and legal representatives.
